

MALEVO

MALEVO is a dance company created by the director, choreographer and dancer Matias Jaime.

The Malambo (traditional Argentine dance of virility and skill) is his main resource, starting from the essence but taking it beyond its own limits with a modern, avant-garde and transgressive vision.

The force and energy of the malambo with the use of drums, boleadoras and zapateo awakens the senses and leaves the adrenaline running high, transmitting the essence of the gaucho of La Pampa, providing spectators with a totally innovative visual and sensory experience.

MALEVO is the perfect combination of originality and excellence, it is a wild beast with a warrior instinct and elegant.

The company achieved worldwide recognition after its successful participation in the renowned American television program "America's Got Talent" and received the "MARCA PAIS" distinction as cultural ambassadors of Argentina in the world.

It has been presented in numerous events, shows, festivals and tours around the world.

In his own country Malevo was summoned by the most recognized programs and was hired for important events (Thai Polo Cup 2016, Fundación COAS, Fundación Zaldivar, YouTube launches, Loreal, Citroen, Fiat, Silkey, Fox Sports, ESPN, TNT, Banco Supervielle, 40 Edition Dakar, Motos Hero India, OMEGA Youth Olympic Games, Jaguares Rugby Argentina, etc.

The company performed in Festivals, such as "Juste Pour Rire" and "Le Incroyable" (Canada), "La France a un Incroyable Talent" (France), and the most important Festivals in the world: Global Village (Dubai), Santa Lucía Festival (Mexico), Lollapalooza (Argentina), Dance Open (Russia), Gastronomic Culinary Festival (Spain), 22 Historique Rally (Monte Carlo), etc.

The Sony Latinoamerica channel filmed a special program with the name "Malevo has talent" broadcast for Spanish-speaking viewers.

– Cirque Du Soleil summoned Malevo to be part of the "One Night for One Drop" World Gala in Las Vegas.

– Universal Studios Japan established a permanent brand show for 1 year in its theme park.

– Ricky Martin and Jamie King summoned our director Matias Jaime as choreographer for the Puerto Rican singer's show "ALL IN" at the Park Theater Monte Carlo.

Currently the company carries out International Tours with its show "Malambo Xtreme" and it is developing " Salvaje", a new show of great magnitude. The company also has "Malevo Art Factory", an online platform for teaching dances (malambo and other disciplines) that are taught throughout the world.
